

SEVERAL FARES FROM BOSTON

PLUT AT BOSTON AND LOW
PRICES, SENT FARES HERE
TO SPLIT.

Several nice fares of fresh fish for the local dealers came down from Boston late yesterday, going to split. The chief trip was that of the new schooner Gertrude Thebaud, which brought a fare of haddock to the Gorton-Pew plant to split. General Seafoods Corporation got some fair-sized trips from the off-shore draggers, and the market was also added to by the arrival from Boston of two of the halibut fleet with fares of fresh and salt fish. Gill netters had a fair afternoon's receipts, but prices were low as in Boston.

ARRIVALS FEW IN PORT TODAY

GILL NETTERS LANDED BULK OF FARES SINCE YES-TERDAY.

Fresh fish receipts at this port fell off considerably since yesterday morning, and today there is practically nothing doing as far as the arrivals of vessels is concerned. The dragger Mystic, came down from Boston yesterday afternoon with 30,000 pounds of haddock for the Gorton-Pew Fisheries Company, being the only arrival to land outside of the gill netters which brought around 36,000 pounds of fish. Nearly all of the seining fleet has sailed on the second leg of their season's work, but three or four craft remaining in port.
